

Marion County and Washington County Cattlemen's Joint Hurricane Helene Relief Efforts

General Information Sheet

Where are donations going?

West North Carolina Livestock Center (474 Stock Drive, Canton, NC 28716)

Donation Information found: <https://www.ncagr.gov/livestockdisasterhelp>

What is needed?

- Hay Bales (Round and Square)
- Baleage/Haylage
- Corn Silage
- Grain Mix or Pellets for Cattle
- Mineral Supplements
- Fencing Supplies
- Feed tubs/troughs
- Water Troughs
- Basic Animal Supplies
- Trucking (time, truck, and trailer to NC)
- Monetary Donation (trucking costs, fuel, etc.)

When are donations being delivered?

The group will leave in an escorted caravan on Saturday, December 14, departing by 6 a.m. Due to road closures from the hurricane, the trip is expected to take 8 hours with stops.

What do I need to do to donate?

- MUST have form complete and delivered to a county contact listed below.
  - Includes: contact info, county, items, size/package/type, quantity, trucking needs.
- Items must be delivered to staging area on Thursday 12/12 or Friday 12/13 by 8 p.m.

Where is the staging area?

Marion County Soccer Complex - 415 Fairgrounds Road, Lebanon, KY. The parking lot across the road from the Marion County Extension Office.

Why have a staging location?

Having a staging location will help combine partial loads to fill trucks and trailers and give an easy departure location to begin the trip.

Will my materials, and/or truck and trailer be safe at that location until the group leaves?

Marion County Sheriff's department has agreed to assign a night guard to ensure all donations, vehicles, and trailers are safe.

I don't have extra hay after the drought this summer, what can I do?

There are numerous options to donate physical supplies, however, here are a few other options:

- Delivery of materials from out in the county to the staging location.
- Truck and trailer hauling to North Carolina.
- Monetary Donation to assist with trucking costs, fuel, etc.
- Food for those hauling to limit number of stops needed.
